Definitions

Cookies are short piece of text (letters or numbers) that allow the web server to store on browser information to use when you visit the site (session cookies) or at a distance of days (persistent cookies). Cookies are stored, according to user preferences, from single browser on the device used (computer, tablet, smartphone).

Similar technologies - such as web beacons, GIF and forms introduced with HTML5 local storage, are used to gather information on user behavior and use of services.

From now on we will refer to cookies and similar technologies using only the term "cookie".

Google analytics

This site includes some components transmitted from Analytics Google, a web traffic analysis service provided by Google. It is, also in this case, of cookies of other organizations managed in an anonymous way to monitor and improve the performance of the host site (performance cookies).

Google Analytics uses "cookies" to collect and analyze anonymous information on the behavior of site usage (including your IP address). This information is collected by Google Analytics, which processes in order to prepare reports for the site manager www.albergocantarini.com about the activities on the site. This site does not use (and do not allow third parties to use) the analysis tool of Google to track or collect personally identifiable information. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google or seek to link an IP address with the identity of a user.

For more information, please refer to the link below:

Duration of cookies

Some cookies (session cookies) remain active only until you close the browser or the execution of the command logout. Other cookies "survive" the closure of the browser and are also available in future visits. These cookies are known as persistent and their duration is set by the server at the time of their creation. In some cases there is fixed a deadline, in other cases the duration is unlimited.

The site www.albergocantarini.com uses some persistent cookies to manage information stored exclusively for technical purposes. However, browsing the pages of the website www.albergocantarini.com, you can interact with sites operated by third parties that can create or modify persistent cookies and profiling.

Manage Cookies

The user can decide whether to accept cookies using the settings on your browser.

Disabling cookies "third party" does not prejudice in any way the navigability.

The setting can be defined specifically for different websites and web applications. Furthermore the best browsers allow you to define different settings for cookies "owners" and those of "third parties".

For example, in Firefox through the menu Tools-> Options -> Privacy, you can access a control panel where you can specify whether or not to accept the different types of cookies and remove them.
